Station Facts

Located within Addison's culinary and entertainment district, the Addison Station provides easy access to work and play, with restaurants, parks, entertainment, and offices all within walking distance. Situated next to the Addison Transit Center, the station will be a transit hub with Carrollton, Dallas, Plano, and Richardson, just a short train or bus ride away.

Long known as a haven for foodies, Addison also draws visitors in for festivities like Taste Addison, Kaboom Town and Vitruvian Lights. With more than 200 restaurants in under five square miles, Addison lays claim to having more restaurants per capita than any other city in the United States.
