Cotton Belt Regional Trail

Built along the Silver Line corridor, the Cotton Belt Regional Trail is a project primarily funded by the North Central Texas Council of Governments.

Phase I of the project is under construction and Phase 2 is set to begin in Q1 2025. Phase 3 will begin once approved by NCTCOG and each city.

Silver Line Vehicles

Silver Line's state-of-the-art vehicles require low maintenance, are diesel powered and meet strict EPA standards. The vehicles will feature:

- seating for 230+ passengers
- overhead storage, bike hooks, large luggage compartment
- internal and external closed-circuit television (CCTV) for consistent DART Police monitoring

Segmented Testing is Coming

Quiet Zones will not be in effect during testing periods.

Silver Line Testing Details

Testing of the vehicles is anticipated to begin in Q4 2024, and will include:

- Simulated service from DFW Airport Terminal B past Knoll Trail Station in Dallas.
- Stops at Knoll Trail, Addison, Carrollton, Cypress Waters and DFW Airport North stations.
- No passenger pick-up or drop-off.
- Testing of systems and crossings on track – flaggers when necessary.
- No Quiet Zones.

Silver Line Preliminary Operating Plan

Proposed daily service from DFW Airport to Shiloh Road with 55 to 60 trips includes:

- 5 a.m. to midnight
- 60-train schedule
- Trains every 30 minutes during peak weekday service times
- Trains every 60 minutes during all other weekday service times
- Weekend schedule hours still being studied
- Ability to adjust train schedule for special event service

Adoption of final service plan will come after public hearing and DART Board approval in 2025.

DART Fare Restructure

DART is engaging the community for comments regarding a proposed fare restructure. The agency will host community meetings throughout the service area. During these events, DART staff will outline the new fare proposal and receive your feedback.

This process will include a formal public hearing on Tuesday, Aug. 27, at 6 p.m. at DART Headquarters.
(located at Akard Station – 1401 Pacific Ave., Dallas, TX, 75202)
